

EYRE COURT EXAMINER!

Eyrecourt Vintage Rally

On Sunday 16th June, the Eyrecourt Vintage Rally was on. Lots of people came. Some people came from far with their vintage cars and tractors. There was lots of stalls there as well. There was stalls that sold tools, toys, antiques, games and shows. There was a dog show there too. There was a big tent where you could sit down and get chips from the chip van. There was a German band playing songs. There was even a helicopter taking people for a trips. It was a great day and I'm looking forward to the next vintage rally.

Last Week in School

It is nearly time for the summer holidays and everyone is preparing for the last day. They are finishing up books, tidying up classrooms and making plans for the summer, there's a lot to do, 5th and 6st class have our school tour on Wednesday the 26st, we are going to a Georgian house, Viking tour, art museum and a nice restaurant, and in the art museum we will be doing our own portrait. Then on Friday the last day of school we all have sports day hopefully it's a nice day it is time to say goodbye to the 6th class and wish them well in secondary school. We will also say hello to the new junior infants and wish them well in their education, we would like to thank all the teachers. Can't wait until 3:00 Friday.

Lion King review

On the 22nd of June the last showing of the Lion King took place in the Bord Gáis energy theatre. The matiné started at 2.30 and ended at 4.30. The opening scene started with a crazy woman singing and suddenly every African animal flooded onto the stage. Not real ones of course, puppets of all sorts. The scene ended with the Pride Rock scene from the movie. Then the play started and it showed Simba the lion cub growing up. Then came the port that I was dreading. Simba's dad gets killed by his evil uncle Scar. Simba runs away and scar takes over, destroying the pride lands. Simba returns with a couple of friends and defeats Scar. I would rate the lion king 9.9 out of 10.

Ireland v's Faroe Islands

On Friday 7th June, Ireland battled Faroe Islands. I was at the match and I thought it was a great game. In the 5th minute Robbie Keane scored, it was a great start. In the first half Ireland dominated the game but were only 1-0 up at half time. Ireland dominated the second half as well. Two more goals from Robbie Keane completed his hat-trick and got him Man of the Match. Ireland won 3-0.

Eyrecourt senior match

On Sunday the 23th of June at 12:30 Ballinasloe the Eyrecourt senior boys played against Killimor. After the first half Eyrecourt were down by 9 points. In the second Eyrecourt caught up. They were down by a point but sadly Killimor scored two points. In the end Killimor won by 3 points. Eyrecourt went home after putting up a good fight.

Kardashian Baby News

On the 15th of June Kim Kardashian gave birth to a baby girl. They decided to name her North West. North was born 5 weeks early but she is very healthy. The news was soon released when sister Khloe tweeted "Mother and baby are healthy" there is also rumors that Kim and Kanye are engaged. Wish them the best!

6th class memories of Primary School

When we first came to school we were very shy especially James, but then a week later all that was lost. We remember going on our first school tour to Glendeer Pet Farm. An emu bit Katelyn Davis' ear. We went to Dublin zoo in first class. In senior infants we went to the teddy bear hospital in Galway. We remember moving from class to class every two years and meeting the different teachers. Our funniest memory is Shane Kearns falling asleep in the Library. In Junior infants we would hide under the table when scary music was playing. All in all it was great craic in primary school. We will all miss our friends.

Looking after your Ponies & Horses in the Summer

Feeding is gone up like pulp it was €8.00 now it is €8.20. If it is sunny out make sure they don't leave them out so long if you do they'll get sunburn. If you're out riding your pony make sure to wash them in cold water and dry them well. Make sure have clean water and food. Sometimes they get Lambers so they can't eat because they have blasters in their mouth. Lambers is caused over eating dirt.

Green School

Cathriona (the green school lady) came to our school again. This time she brought 3rd-6th class down to the river in river street. She went into the river and started "kick sampling" the way the insects will rise from the dirt and will go into the did it 3 times. When my group went over net. Cathriona, we searched the container and we found blood worms, shrimps and Larva. We out them into containers and examined them using magnifying glasses. When were done we put them back into the river and we went back to the school.

Factory Watch for Lambs

If you are sending a 45kg lamb to the factory, it will make 25kg in meat. Unfortunately the factory will only pay up to 22kg. Kepak Athleauge is currently paying €5.25 per kg. (This would give the farmer about €105.00.) Kildare chilling and Ballyhauness Ltd. would roughly pay this. Unfortunately the prices go up and down.

Farmers, choose wisely.

U12's match in Shinrone

On Tuesday the 18th Eyrecourt u12's played against in Shinrone; in Shinrone. Some of their players were under 11's, they were Offaly champions, but they lacked in size. As soon as the ball was thrown in we started scoring and didn't stop. Josh Spain came on half way through the 2nd half and scored 3 goals. Shinrone scored a few points, but overall we hammered them.

Tomas Flynn

Meelick Eyrecourt U13's

On the 20th of June, Meelick Eyrecourt U13's played St. Thomas' in Clonfert. It started off very well for us with a goal from our corner forward Mark Larkin. After a while it was 1-1 to no score. We thought that we were going to pull away, but St. Thomas' pulled back. They got 2-1 to 1-3. but almost immediately we got a goal, so it was 2-3 to 2-1. we got a couple of scores including frees from Daragh Mills and a point from Niall Fleming. At half time it was 2-5 to 2-1. in the second half we played brilliant hurling. But St. Thomas' got dirty between pulling on

Meelick Eyrecourt U13 Hurling

On the 17th June Eyrecourt U13's played Killimor in Clonfert Pitch. We didn't feel very confident. Before the match there was a German band practising in the pitch. After a while Eyrecourt lined up one side and Killimor lined up the other side. Then the German band played the National Anthem for us. We played the match and we hammered them. Meelick Eyrecourt 4-5 to Killimor 1-4.

Tiernan Gohery

John Fleming's hand and Niall Fleming's head, but we kept on Hurling. The final score was Meelick Eyrecourt 4-6 to 3-4.

The U10 Final

On Sunday the 23rd of June the Eyrecourt U10 team played Ballygar in Ballinasloe. The starting team was Mark Loughnane in goals. Thomas Fleming and Alan Mullery in full back. Keith Bradley and Adam Ryan in half back. Evan Gohery and Jack Loughnane in Mid-field. Finn Gohery and Jack Rosney in half forward and Josh Spain Daniel James in full forward. The game started. A few minutes from the start we got a free near to the goals. Evan Gohery took it. He went for the goal. It hit off the goalies hurl and it went in. It was a goal to no score. About five minutes later Ballygar got a goal. It was a goal a piece. Ballygar got a point and it was half time. Ballygar were up by a point. It was 1-0 to 1-2 to Ballygar. As the game went on the referee was giving Eyrecourt no frees and then the game was over.
